

I very much enjoy not being bothered by phone calls with people trying to get me to buy something. I consider it an invasion on our household. Banks are doing fine, and we don't want to help them out by changing our no-call system. Do not allow this no-call list to change.